

MEET MY FRIEND, GEORGE BAMBERG

It is my privilege and pleasure to introduce to you my friend George Bamberg. George was born in June of 1942, in Jackson, Mississippi, 6 months and one week after Pearl Harbor. George's father attended Mississippi A & M, which later became Mississippi State University. After graduation George's father worked for the USDA in Cuba as a chemist where he inspected sugarcane production. During World War II George's father was stationed in Galveston. When the war was over George's dad got a job with Shilstone testing laboratories in Houston.

George grew up in southwest Houston and attended Lamar High School, Texas A & M, and Texas Wesleyan college where he majored in business. Upon graduation George went to law school. He attended Baylor law school in Waco, graduated and passed the bar in 1969. George received his law license on May 26, 1969. On May 1, 2019, George will be celebrating 50 years of practicing law.

While in law school George worked for a Waco title company to make ends meet examining title for real estate closings. Upon completion of law school he moved to Houston and went to work for Carl Lee & Fisher where he represented commercial title, home savings, couch mortgage as well as individual real estate clients. Howard lee was George's first mentor. George worked for Carl Lee & Fisher for 5 years and then decided to go out on his own practicing law. George's legal journey took him from his own firm to in house counsel for Capital Title, and then as a partner with Parks & Moss. When Parks and Moss disbanded, George called his friend Malcolm Morris. Malcolm introduced George to Barry Snowden with Morris, Lendais, Hollrah, and Snowden. The rest, as they say, is history. George has been with Morris, Lendais, Hollrah, and Snowden since 1985.

George has been married to Linda, his bride of 28 years. Linda and George met at first Baptist church where they both sang in the choir. George has one son, Todd Bamberg. Todd and his family live in Chicago where Todd is an independent food consultant. Todd and his wife have two children with one on the way.

One thing most people do not know about George is that his vocation is choral singing. George sings in the Houston Masterworks Chorus which sings classical music like Mozart and Brahms. One of George's hobbies is genealogy. His bloodline goes back to Charlemagne from the early middle ages. He also loves to read crime fiction and he and Linda love to travel.

George was introduced to HIREBA by Rita Young.
